

Working with the U.S. Botanic Garden

Employment Opportunities

Job openings can be researched at USAJOBS. Positions are listed under the Architect of the Capitol, the administering agency for the U.S. Botanic Garden.

Volunteer Opportunities

Thank you for your interest in volunteering at the United States Botanic Garden! Volunteer opportunities are listed below. Please check back periodically as this list is updated based on current needs of the Garden. Please contact Volunteer Coordinator Maura Nelson with any questions.

Basic volunteer requirements:

- Background check
- Fingerprinting
- Commitment of 100 hours or 1 year of service to the Garden

Horticulture Volunteers

Horticulture volunteers support the staff with general care and maintenance of the living plant collections at the Conservatory, Production Facility (Greenhouse complex) and outdoor gardens. Candidates must have previously completed a Master Gardener certificate program, hold a degree in horticulture (or completed similarly-related coursework) or be currently employed in the field of horticulture.

The Horticulture Division is recruiting for the following volunteer positions:

- No current openings.

Public Programs Volunteers

Public programs volunteers are ambassadors for the Garden, welcoming visitors at the front desk, facilitating informal learning experiences for the visitors and supporting events such as lectures, workshops and festivals.

The Public Programs Division is recruiting for the following volunteer positions:

- No current openings.
-

Source URL: <http://www.usbg.gov/working-us-botanic-garden>